

---

COURSE OUTLINE – CRITICAL THINKING IN NURSING (CTN01)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides participants with the major concepts of critical thinking and then applies them to the practice of nursing. Through an exploration of various readings and expert views on the subject, and through practice exercises using a case study approach, the participant develops the attributes of critical thought and applies them to situations of client care. The course provides a staged approach to critical thinking skills development and application. Success in one stage leads to development in the next.

Pre-requisites: Graduation from an entry-level nursing program.

Co-requisites: None.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Provide a clear definition of critical thinking.
- Identify and prioritize the data required to make sound nursing judgments.
- Use an organized approach to assessment
- Accurately identify and prioritize risks and problems
- Clarify and challenge own and others' assumptions about the client and his/her health care needs.
- Check for accuracy and reliability of information.
- Critically analyze the impact of environmental factors on nursing practice and health care outcomes.
- Apply critical thinking in completing nursing case studies.
- Anticipate client needs and provide appropriate nursing interventions.
- Provide evidence-informed nursing care to clients.
- Accurately identify and resolve problems.
- Discern between judgments in achieving client goals
- Evaluate conclusions and adapt thinking

Course Hours:

3.5 contact hours twice per week, for 6 weeks.

Modes of Instruction and Learning

This course is delivered through a number of different online modes of teaching and learning. These include reading and literature search, short answer questions, short assignments, and responses to case study questions.

---

Assessment and Evaluation

Participants are required to successfully complete all learning activities in order to achieve an overall Mastery grade for the course. The specific criteria for success will vary with the type of learning activity and are indicated in each individual activity description (online). Generally, participants will be able to resubmit once when a learning activity is deemed by the Consultant as not meeting some or all of the competencies. The maximum number of resubmissions allowed is three and, even then, only at the instructor's discretion. This course should be completed within the maximum time frame of 12 weeks.

Participants are required to achieve a 'Mastery' grade in all assessable components of the course in order to receive the certificate of completion.

Attendance and Participation

The deadline for completing this course is 12 weeks from the date you first log onto the course-specific site. You are expected to be on the site on a regular basis or to indicate to the Consultant/Instructor how you are progressing. Failure to complete this course within the deadline or to maintain regular communication for a prolonged period (one month) could result in your being withdrawn from the online learning centre. A reinstatement fee of $100.00 may be payable should you wish to continue with the course after this time. If you repeat the same failure to maintain communication for a second time, you will be required to pay another reinstatement fee of $100.00. If you repeat the same failure to maintain communication for a third time, or if you are absent for a period of six months without communication (even if this is your first time failing to communicate regularly), you will have to pay the entire course and administration fees over again. Decisions in this regard are at the sole discretion of JCC Inc.

Technical Issues (Reminder)

Technical problems can arise from a number of sources in online learning programs. Participants having technical difficulties should report them to JCC Inc. as soon as possible by e-mail, fax or phone. The news forums or e-mail will be used to notify participants of any known issues. Please read the news forum and check your e-mail frequently to keep aware of current conditions and issues. Participants will not be penalized for technical problems which arise from our LMS or the Server. Requests for assistance will be given priority responses.

---

Withdrawal & Refund Policy

In order to withdraw from continuing education at JCC Inc., all participants must provide written notice. The date upon which this written notice is received will be used to determine the amount of any potential refund based upon the following policy:

- (a) If written notice of withdrawal is received by JCC Inc. or a participant is dismissed within 8 calendar days since the participant received the introductory email<sup>1</sup>, then JCC Inc. may retain 30% of the tuition.
- (b) If written notice of withdrawal is received by JCC Inc. or a participant is dismissed after 8 calendar days and within 25 calendar days since the participant received the introductory email<sup>1</sup>, then JCC Inc. may retain 50% of the tuition.
- (c) If written notice of withdrawal is received by JCC Inc. or a participant is dismissed at any point after 25 calendar days since the participant received the introductory email<sup>1</sup>, then JCC Inc. may retain 100% of the tuition.

*N.B.: Notice must be received by e-mail to info@jcollinsconsulting.com by 4:00 p.m. (PST) on or before the days stated above.

<sup>1</sup> The introductory email provides the participant's username and password which grant access to the Online Learning Centre. The introductory email is considered to have been received by the participant when JCC Inc. sends it to the email address provided by the participant in the application form.

All program participants are required to read the "Site Policies" on the Online Learning Centre front page. The URL sent to you in the registration e-mail, with your username and password, will take you to this page. These documents have important policy information and assistance with assignments. You will be subject to the policies and expectations outlined in these documents, therefore, it is critical that you read them before starting your module/course.